

AND WHY NOT?

The third-party advocates who wish to claim "silver" as the party name are unconsciously exposing their motives when they make the threat that nobody can get an office unless he joins. Those who are honestly intent upon doing something for silver mining do not want an office as a reward for their opinions.—Enterprise.

The Enterprise of late has brought several indictments against the Silver party, and among other things has charged the party with a desire to put people in office.

This is a very serious charge to make against a political party and should be seriously investigated. If true and the Enterprise can prove it, it ought to settle the silver movement forever.

The idea of a political party aspiring to elect anybody to office is something perfectly awful. Of course the Republican and Democratic parties have never been guilty of doing such a thing in the State, or probably if they ever did the Enterprise has forgotten all about it.

If our memory serves us right however, we recall the time when the Democracy of this State, were so anxious to elect a Democratic legislative ticket that it bought votes in Reno for $20 apiece, paid $25 in Eureka and $80 in Churchill.

These figures would certainly seem to indicate quite an anxiety to elect somebody to office. Again, in some Republican hours of anxiety we have seen votes command $15 apiece right here in Carson City, and in Virginia $30 and in Reno $20. What do you think of this, brother Campbell? Now if our memory continues to serve us, we never yet heard of a party in Nevada giving office to anybody who did not first join the party and also train with it a spell.

It may be that the silver party in this State may conclude to give its loaves and fishes to a lot of people who have been fighting the party, but it will surprise us very much if such a thing occurs.

Now when it comes down to cases Mr. Enterprise, do you really think any point is gained by charging a party new or old with being actuated by a desire to put its own friends in office instead of its enemies.

If you think all the political saints, milk sops, dudes and sissies in the State are getting into the silver party you are mistaken. We propose to stand in for our own kind of people.

They Pulled the String.

A few days before the demise of Mrs. Thresa Fair, she decided that as she had no further use for money she would give $250,000 to the Catholic Church to build a college where young priests could be educated. The executors of the estate however refuse to give up a cent.

They claim that Mrs. Fair was not in a condition of mind at the time to know what she was about, although they do not seem to think the bequests made at the same time can be affected by Mrs. Fair's mental condition. They are all right, so it appears.

They even go so far as to insinuate that she never signed any such bequest at all, as no one about the house, or the watchers at her bedside saw her sign any such document on the day the bequest was dated. The fact of it is that Mrs. Fair threw her sop to the church a little too late.

She was worth millions of dollars for several years and if she had been particularly desirous of establishing the institution named in the bequest, she could very easily have gone about it, while she was alive and in good health. The fact of it all is, that very rich people don't seem to care much about parting with worldly wealth until they can no longer enjoy it themselves. About that time they begin thinking of church bequests.

The Elko Independent learns from George H. Meiggs, that his brother Dr. Meiggs is in a fair way to get well. He is very weak from loss of blood and the severe operation he has undergone, but is in good spirits and making a brave fight for life.

Society has taken Mrs. Colman Drayton back to its arms again in good shape. It can't afford to be cool to a woman with her millions.

Pasturage.

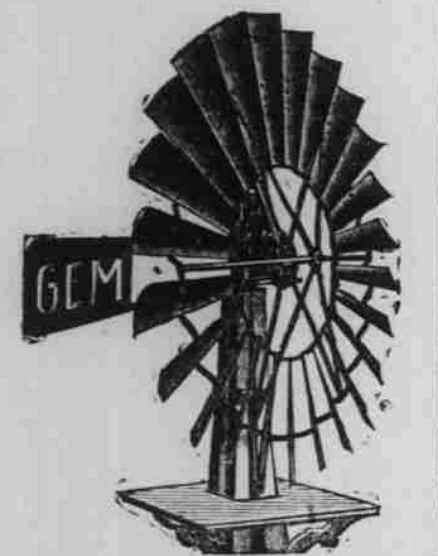

On the Duffy and Kirmah ranches which contain over 700 acres, being the largest body of pasture land in Ormsby county. As the waters from Clear Creek flume, Ash Canyon and Lake View flow through the property it is the best watered. From the extended range it is eminently fitted for stock cattle and horses. Two bulls, a Holstein and a Jersey, are kept for the service of stock. A limited number of milch cows will be driven from and returned to the city daily. Season commences April 15th. Terms reasonable.
